

Please do not eliminate the no call list. I have recently gotten rid of my cellular phone and started a phone service at my home. I have telemarketers calling me at my home at 9:45 PM. I am sleeping at that time. I will, if this gets taken away, get rid of my home service and go back to cellular service.

Most people cannot afford cellular service so please keep the no-call list.

Thank You,
Dana Steffen